HAVE DYNAMITERS ESCAPED TO MEXICO BY SEA?

Officials Refuse to Discuss Rumor of Diplomatic Assistance.

LOCATING A SUSPECT

Chief of Police Seymour Claims to Have a New Clue.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20.—If any action has been taken upon the information supplied through the State Department at Washington that three men suspected of complicity of dynamiting the Times building are aboard a Mexican coasting steamer, no one connected with the man-hunt here would admit it tonight. Attorneys of the district attorney's office denied having any official knowledge of Secretary Knox's telegram to the governor. So did Earl Rogers and the officials of the police department.

Rogers said he expected important developments in the case tomorrow, but whether these developments concerned the men supposed to be aboard the steamer fleeing southward to some Latin-American state, he declined to say. No one would admit that Knox's suggestion that the Mexican authorities be asked to stop the steamer and take off the suspects had been accepted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Chief of Police Seymour announced tonight that Antone Johnson, friend of M. A. Schmidt, one of the trio suspected of having purchased the dynamite used in the destruction of the Los Angeles Times building, would appear at his office. The chief expressed the belief that Johnson will be of material assistance in locating the alleged dynamiter. Johnson lives at Corte Madera in Marin county and is the business agent of the Millmen's Union. At the time of the explosion he was in Des Moines attending a labor convention. According to Seymour, Mrs. Johnson told him that Mrs. Lavin and Schmidt dined at her home in Corte Madera the night before the explosion which destroyed the Times building. Johnson first met Schmidt in Chicago. Later the two met again in this city and Johnson employed Schmidt to assist his house at Corte Madera. Johnson knew him as "Smithy," the name under which he was known to several persons who met him at Mrs. Lavin's home in this city. The chief declared that Schmidt, "Smithy" or Morris, as he was variously known, had traveled extensively in this country, and that if he was still within the United States, his arrest would be effected soon.

JOHNSON CAMPAIGNS IN CONTRA COSTA

Speaks Briefly, Because Constant Speaking Has Strained Voice.

RICHLAND, Cal., Oct. 20.—Hiram W. Johnson campaigned today through Contra Costa county, addressing six meetings and winding up with an overflow rally at the local opera house. The Republican candidate had a hard day's work and for the first time during the campaign his voice began to give trouble. Constant use in the open air has strained it. As a consequence he spoke briefly at the day meetings. The burden of speech making was left to former Senator Charles Babbitt and Arthur H. Elliott of the Oakland city council.

Johnson left Napa early this morning and was not in Port Costa by a party of Republicans of Contra Costa county in automobiles. Meetings were held at Martinez, Concord, Walnut Creek, Danville and Lafayette.

IMMIGRATION STATION IS IN GOOD CONDITION

Declares Secretary Nagel in Ordering Changes in Procedure.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Two reforms in the practices at the Angel Island immigration station at San Francisco are called for in a letter written by Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel to Commissioners General of Immigration Keefe as the result of Nagel's recent inspection trip on the Pacific coast. These are that the department yielded to the request of representatives of foreigners that during the hearings counsel and interpreters in behalf of the applicant be allowed to be present if desired, enough not to participate, and that the commissioner at San Francisco be given discretionary power to examine witnesses on their behalf.

Secretary Nagel says the station itself is in good condition and under proper management there should be no just cause for complaint.

SIX LIVES LOST IN GREAT HURRICANE WHEN VESSEL WAS WASHED TO SEA

Telegraphic Communication Re-established With Southern Florida; Immense Damage Done.

TAMPA, Fla., Oct. 20.—With telegraphic communication re-established today, a recapitulation shows losses reaching hundreds of thousands of dollars as a result of the West Indian storm which swept across the peninsula Tuesday.

The toll of life, as far as reported, is limited to six seamen on the steamer Nabob, which was washed out to sea. So far as reported, Key West was the worst sufferer. Passengers living in on the steamer Olivette this afternoon reported that the light plant was wrecked, the wireless station blown down, half a dozen of the largest cigar factories in ruins with half a hundred other buildings badly damaged.

The railway steamer Herman Frisch is ashore at Crocker's Reef. There are no tugs available to send to the relief of the vessel.

TAMPA, Fla., Oct. 20.—For the first time since early Tuesday morning wire communication with the outside world was restored by Tampa this afternoon, acting the Western Union Telegraph Company established two lines to Jacksonville.

Reports from all nearby towns indicate there was no loss of life inland during the recent hurricane. The most serious damage in this section is to the orange crop, which will yield more than 20 per cent.

During the height of the storm, the sloop Nabob broke loose from her moorings at Marquesas and was swept to sea. The six men aboard perished.

The American steamer Herman Frisch is ashore in three fathoms of water at Crocker's Reef, northeast of Alligator Light. The British steamer Inventor reports having rescued six men from the schooner Martha and ten men from the bark Hugo, both vessels being adrift in the gulf.

DAMAGE EXAGGERATED.

KELLY WEST, via Havana, Oct. 20.—The damage done by the storm in Key West was not as great as at first reported. Business was resumed yesterday and all the cigar factories were working today.

The construction engineers of the east coast contractors say that the work at North Knights Key has not been severely damaged.

The steamer city of Texas will take passengers from the stranded steamer Lipskis to Havana direct. Those now at Key West will leave on the Oliver tomorrow night.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Oct. 20.—Tales of suffering and hardship were brought here today by the five survivors of the three-masted schooner William W. Converse of Philadelphia, who were rescued by a launch from the life saving station.

Captain E. J. Miller and two of the crew were drawn when the vessel went to pieces in the hurricane Tuesday afternoon forty miles below the city. The two men were Charles Anderson, mate, and Frank Hayes, seaman. Anderson succeeded in reaching the surf near the shore when a portion of the wreck struck him, causing his death.

Fred Miller, aged 18, son of the captain, together with three seamen and a negro steward reached the shore on a pile of wreckage after fighting through a mile of pulsing surf. The survivors are in a pitiful condition.

BOSTON & MAINE RAILROAD WILL QUIT LOBBYING

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 20.—The Boston and Maine railroad will not interfere with the politics of the state hereafter, according to President Charles H. Mellen, who tonight addressed the Woodmen Club on "The Political situation in New Hampshire."

Mellen said:

"We will not interfere in any way with the election of members of the legislature or other public officers.

"We shall not give directly or indirectly any consideration which shall tend to influence an officer in the performance of his duty.

"We shall do away with the lobby, in the sense in which that term is commonly used. We must, however, employ the ablest talent we can secure to present to the legislature our views upon pending legislation affecting our company."

DETECTIVES LET BLACKMAILER ESCAPE

Are Ordered to Explain
Neglect of Duty Before Commission.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—On the charge of neglect of duty, for having failed to arrest the blackmailer who attempted to extort $500 from Barnard Katchinski on threats to dynamite his home, Detective Sergeant William McNamee and Corporal Harry Bratik were ordered today by Chief of Police Seymour to appear before the commissioners.

Katchinski, a merchant, received a note lately threatening destruction of his home if he did not place $500 in a designated spot. McNamee and Bratik were placed on watch at this place after Katchinski's son had deposited a sack of iron washers there. An aged young man chambered over the fence soon after the detectives took their positions and as they stumbled over each other in their efforts to catch him, he escaped with the bag of washers.

Each officer accuses the other of having tripped him.

BALLOON DESCENDS AFTER 1100 MILES

Another Competitor in Air
Race May Have Made
1200 Miles.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 20.—Colonel Theodore Rimbach, piloting the Stetson Helveta, which started in the international race here Monday, landed at Villa Maria, Pontiac county, Quebec, late this afternoon, according to a message received by the Aero Club at St. Louis tonight. Villa Maria is about 1100 miles northeast of St. Louis.

This is not thought to be the balloon sighted at Kirkland, Canada, 1200 miles from St. Louis. If the report of that balloon is authentic, it makes the international race started here the most remarkable in balloon annals. The other three balloons which are believed to have reached Canada—landed are the Bidas balloon, Asura, Lieutenant Meeser, pilot; the German balloon Dusseldorf II, Lieutenant Hans Gercke, pilot; and the America II, Alan R. Hawley pilot.

UNMITIGATED LIAR, PROFESSOR CALLS EX-PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

Creates Uproar at Ithaca Democratic Meeting by His Remarks.

COMPARED TO CLODIUS

Combines the Violence of the Demagogue With the Aristocrat.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Twice in his speech tonight, Professor E. H. Woodruff of Cornell University called Theodore Roosevelt a liar, once an "unmitigated liar." His attack made at a political rally over which he presided, threw the house into an uproar.

There were catcalls, hisses, cheers and clapping, with a steady shout behind them of all of "Parker! Parker!"

Judge Alton B. Parker then begged the audience to allow Professor Woodruff to be heard! The noisy part of the house cleared and the rest of the evening went on more quietly.

Professor Woodruff began by repeating the Bellamy Storer episode of the opening of the Bellamy Storer episode when Colonel Roosevelt, only recently deceased, was closed. He argued that when the Colonel denied sending Bellamy Storer to the Vatican he was an "unmitigated liar" and there were letters in his possession, he said, to bear him out.

The uproar had barely subsided when the professor took up his cudgels again. Roosevelt was twice a liar, he said, when he denied that the late E. H. Harriman had subscribed to a corruption fund to be used for Roosevelt's election to the Presidency. He closed with a quotation from the Italian historian of Rome, Ferrero, transferred from Clodius, to whom it was originally applied by the writer, to Roosevelt. The speaker was careful to specify that he meant to imply no comparison between the private life of Clodius and Roosevelt. The quotation follows:

"The youngest recruit in the ranks of the proletarii, who knew no scruples, and combined the violence of the demagogue with the self-assurance of the aristocrat, was anxious to assert his claim to dominate the community—not so much by his intellect—which was indeed no way remarkable, but by the one quality in which he outshone all his rivals—by his uncontrollable audacity."

Judge Parker, who followed directly after him, shafted at Candidate Stimson.

STRIKE TO RESTORE FOREMEN TO JOBS

Twenty-five Hundred Men Ordered Out on the Gould Lines.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 20.—A strike in sympathy with the Missouri Pacific railway machinists, to become effective at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, was decided on tonight by the labor leaders.

The strike will affect the boilermakers, the metal workers and blacksmiths of the Missouri Pacific and from Mountain Falls, Sevier county, where the former governor and former United States senator was born 67 years ago.

Senator Hill died at 2:45 o'clock this morning. He had been ill nearly three weeks with a cold and a bilious attack, but his condition had not been considered serious. He was sitting up in bed to take a drige of water when he was seized with an acute dilation of the heart. Hill had long been a sufferer from Bright's disease.

Although he retired from active participation in politics following the presidential election of 1904, Senator Hill was deeply interested in the progress of the present campaign. As late as last Friday he discussed the situation with Judge Parker, who was preparing to make a tour of the state in the interest of the Democratic ticket.

Senator Hill had never married. He did not smoke and seldom tasted liquor.

Governor White tonight issued a proclamation requesting that the flags on all the public buildings of the state be displayed at half mast until the sunset of the day of Senator Hill's funeral.

"It is with sincere sorrow that I announce the death of David Bennett Hill, former governor of the state of New York," said Governor White. "This sad event marks the close of a remarkable career. For more than thirty years David Bennett Hill was a prominent figure in the public life of the state. The force of his personality impressed itself not only upon the people of New York, but upon the whole country and at the expiration of his final term as governor, he became the candidate of his party in the state of New York for the Presidential nomination before the Democratic National convention. As United States senator from 1891 to 1897 he found ample opportunity for the exercise of his skill as a parliamentarian, his brilliant powers as an orator and his uncommon gifts as a leader of men."

A statement signed by union leaders says that if the trouble on the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain is not speedily adjusted, the unions will bring influence to bear on their members employed on either Gould and

St. Louis.

He was elected to the Assembly in 1870 and again in 1871. In his first term in the Assembly he made his memorable fight to abolish contract convict labor and in his second he was a member of the judiciary committee with Samuel J. Tilden, they being the only Democratic members which had the task of investigating the alleged scandal and corrupt conduct of certain New York City judges. For many years Hill was a member of the Democratic state committee and in 1876 and 1881 he was a delegate to the national conventions which nominated Tilden and Cleveland, respectively.

In 1882 he was elected lieutenant governor on the same ticket with Grover Cleveland and following Cleveland's election to the presidency, he became governor, subsequently elected for two terms. He was governor for seven years.

In 1890 Mr. Hill was elected United States senator and in 1894 he was once more the candidate of the Democratic party for governor, but was defeated by Levi P. Morton, his Republican opponent.

Hill was the candidate of the New York Democrats for the nomination for President in 1892, but Grover Cleveland was renominated for that office.

Hill was credited with being the political sponsor of Alton B. Parker, who was nominated for the presidency by the Democratic National convention at St. Louis. Following his permanent retirement from politics and since that time he had dedicated himself to his law practice.

DISTINGUISHED GATHERING PAYS RESPECTS TO REMAINS OF DOLLIVER

Great Crowd at Fort Dodge When Iowa Senator Is Laid to Rest in the Spot He Himself Had Chosen.

FORT DODGE, Iowa, Oct. 20.—While a cold rain fell in torrents and added gloom to the already sorrowful occasion, the body of Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver was laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery on a hillside overlooking the city, this afternoon.

The rain, driven by a raw, cold wind, began to fall early this morning and compelled the family to abandon the original plan of holding the services on the lawn of the Dolliver home. The funeral, therefore, was held in the Fifty-sixth Regiment Armory, which accommodates 5000 persons.

Psalm, and Rev. E. S. Johnson offered a short prayer. Following the services, eulogies were delivered by the following:

EULOGIES:

Rev. Charles T. Stuart, Chicago, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, on "Dolliver, the Man."

Governor Carroll, on behalf of the people of Iowa.

Senator Cummins, as representative of the United States Senate.

Harvey Ingham, editor of the Des Moines Register and Leader, on behalf of the half of the press.

Judge R. M. Wright of Fort Dodge, for the people of Fort Dodge.

The Rev. W. H. Spence of Fort Dodge, on "The Senator's Relation to the Home Church."

Bishop William Fraser McDowell of Chicago, "A Fallen Leader."

George E. Roberts, of Washington, D. C., formerly a resident of Fort Dodge, now director of the mint, arrived in time for the services but could not speak. Ingham took his place on the program.

SENATOR CUMMINS

Senator Cummins, speaking on behalf of the Senate, paid a glowing eulogy to his departed colleague. He said in part:

"In behalf of his colleagues of the Senate, I am bidding my last good-bye, rather than uttering the eulogy which later will pour from the lips of his friends in the chamber which he so often thrived with the lofty strains of his inspiring eloquence. I am lamenting over the irreparable loss we have all suffered. I am thinking of his work, mightily advanced, but still unfinished.

"We shall miss him as we would miss no other man. To him was given a measure of affection rich in its quality and royal in its extent. Not the least of his striking and shining characteristics was the abounding good fellowship with which he enveloped not only his associates, but all humanity. Notwithstanding his acknowledged prominence in debate, I hazard the prediction that when we meet again around his vacant chair, the first thought will be of his kindly presence, his cheerful greeting as he passes from desk to desk during the hours of strenuous discussion, of the never-failing wit and humor with which he illuminated the most casual conversation.

"He was always welcome, because his heart was not only overrunning with friendliness, but because as he went his way he left behind him the smile born of his felicitous countenance and the delightful reflection awakened by the keen thrust of his satire."

Following the services in the armory, the funeral cortège again formed and filed silently toward Oakdale cemetery. It stopped at a spot on a hillside which Senator Dolliver had picked out for his burying-place.

At the graveside, statesmen, clergymen and hundreds of men, women and children stood in the rain and listened to the final service, a simple prayer by the Rev. W. H. Spence, pastor of Senator Dolliver's church.

The grave was hanked with tinted autumn leaves, gathered and placed there by the hands on Senator Dolliver's farm.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Forecast: San Joaquin Valley—Fair, cooler Friday; light north winds.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

There has been practically no change in the weather conditions of the Pacific states during the past 24 hours, except that it is cooler this morning in the coast sections of Northern California. The high barometric area has spread eastward into the Mississippi valley and upper lake region, causing more cooler weather over those sections. The change in temperature has been estimated to from 10 to 12 degrees and light rain has attended the decreasing temperature. The West Indian hurricane is now off the North Carolina coast, but the winds on the immediate coast have decreased to moderate velocities. This storm has caused heavy rain during the last 24 hours along the Atlantic coast as far north as New York; 24 hour falls in excess of one inch being reported from Washington, Baltimore and Charleston.

A disturbance of considerable intensity has appeared over the Canadian Northwest and the pressure has fallen on the north Pacific coast as the high temperature moved eastward. No definite storm area has appeared off the coast and partly cloudy weather may be expected to continue tonight and Friday.

THREE WIVES GRANTED UNCONTESTED PRAYERS FOR DIVORCE

Cruel and Inhuman Treatment Proven in Two of the Cases.

Estates in Probate; Woman Sues for Recovery of Town Lots.

Three divorcees by default were granted to wives yesterday by Judge Austin namely to Florence H. Williams from Charles J. Williams married in Fresno in June, 1892, to Alice DeLoura from L. E. DeLoura married in Fresno in April, 1896, and to May Ruth Erts, Wynne, married in Waltham, Mass., in November, 1894.

The Williams divorcee was on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment, and she was permitted to resume her former name of Carter. The specifications were numerous. On August 26, 1904 that he beat and struck her, slapped her in the face, knocked her down and that when she was prostrate that he twice kicked her in the side. On March 7, 1905 he subjected her to similar abuse and actually made a hostile demonstration against her with double barrel shotgun. Also that he frequently threatened to leave her without making provision for her support, and kept her in constant fear that he would do as he threatened by having his personal effects packed in a trunk ready to be removed at any moment.

Mrs. Williams testified that the above acts having continued and matrimony relations having been revived, he again inaugurated another system of maltreatment, going about to procure that she is insane and not competent to manage her affairs, cursing and reviling her, impugning her reputation as a wife and keeping her in constant anxiety with the threat to leave her in destitution and still holding his belongings packed for removal at a moment's notice.

LATEST NEWS OF OIL FIELDS

PIERCE VISITS FIELDS ON WEST SIDE OF KERN COUNTY

Is Reticent as to Probable Policy of Department on Oil Land.

Will Go Into Lost Hills, Devil's Den and Coalings Today.

(Special to the Republican.)

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 20.—Frank Pierce, first assistant secretary of the interior, arrived here early today and spent most of the day motorizing over the fields of the west side of the county, looking over the actual ground concerned in the withdrawals by the department that have caused so much recent discussion in oil circles. Pierce, who is now in the West looking over the situation with a view of helping map the future policy of the department.

most as far as oil lands are concerned, is quite reticent here as to the conclusions he has so far reached, and would give out nothing further than the intimation that those operators who have not tried to grab everything in sight will be favored as much as equitable. He said further, that each case will be decided on its individual merits.

Pierce was met here by a party representing the Board of Trade of Kern County, headed by Charles P. Fox, D. A. Barlow, president of the Board of Trade; T. F. Burke, its secretary; J. C. Payne and others. The party went with him on his automobile trip to the West Side fields, and was accompanied by a large number of oil men who are interested in the questions involved in Pierce's present inquiry.

The assistant secretary made a very short stop here, and spent the time in the Kern River fields. He visited the Maricopa, and the Sunset district, the Midway, and finally went up to McKittrick, spending the night on the United property, near there.

He will make an early start tomorrow, going through the newly opened Lost Hills, the Devil's Den country, and into Coalings. He will be accompanied by most of those that went with him on his tour today, with the exception of Barlow and Payne.

From Coalings he will return direct to Los Angeles, and announce that he will hold in this valley no public meetings such as those he has been holding in Los Angeles.

STANDARD OIL CO. PAYS FRESNO TAXES

Yesterday Proves Banner Day for Collections With Over $25,000 Taken in.

Yesterday was the banner day for collections since tax payments for 1911 became due. The day's total was $26,128.80, of which the Standard Oil Company alone paid $21,187.46 on the two installments for taxes on oil land and pipe lines in and out of the city.

The day's tax contributions were as follows: State and county, $25,688.62; Fresno city, $89.07; Selma, $67.74; and Fowler, $4.46.

Assistant Cashier H. R. Crozier of the Bank of Coalings was a caller at the tax collector's office and took with him the bills of 178 taxpayers, resident in the Coalings district.

Up to noon yesterday, Tax Cashier Smith reports that 1277 property owners had presented their statements and paid the taxes due by them.

FOX SAYS 'SQUARE DEAL' DOCTRINE APPLIES TO OIL LAND

Again Replies to Short on Matter of Southern Pacific Titles.

Stands Out for Theory That Equity Will Protect the Operators.

The following open letter, addressed to Frank H. Short of this city, written by Charles P. Fox of Bakersfield, the leading spirit in the California Oil Men's Association, and dealing with the question of Southern Pacific oil land titles was made public yesterday:

My Dear Sir:—In your letter under date of October 14, treating further

of the question of the government's proceeding to attempt to recover from the Southern Pacific oil bearing lands contained within its agricultural grant, you make the statement that no one is ever justified in taking a wrong position upon a public question,

but that under present circumstances

we should hesitate to take a stand for fear that the oil business be hurt. I agree with you in this to the extent that we should not rush to toward the establishment of a right policy in a manner so headlong that worthy private enterprises shall be injured. Frequently a larger public right embracing a smaller private right can and should await its accomplishment until such time as no wrong whatever need be done. This is the case, it seems to me, in the insistance under discussion. In the instance, the railroad does not own the oil

lands it claims these lands should be recovered

for the large public good but not before those who are operating those lands under permission obtained from the railroad have been amply protected.

ACCORDING TO POLICY.

I showed in my former letter that it would be a matter of no difficulty, undoubtedly in accord with exact justice and attenuated harmonious with the government's past and present policy of disposing of its domain, to validate the claims of the railroad's grantees and lessees but the suggested course you liken to the painting of rainbows on the sky. If it is, let us paint a rainbow. Rainbows have been painted herefore, and made to stick. In fact every advance of popular rights has been a rainbow first. That is why the sky of human life is now so bright and beautiful compared with the skies of ancient times—it contains thousands of good, healthy, substantial rainbows that won't come off. And our own little decoration will find a place there.

To be less frivolous, those rights which would be jeopardized by the return of government oil lands now held by the Southern Pacific could be validated by enactment of special legislation covering their necessities which would not be in contradiction of any law; already on the statute books
but, on the contrary, would only amplify and make applicable our present laws to those special necessities, and this would be no unusual proceeding,
for the sovereign has always exercised clemency in cases where the operation of the laws for the common good had worked well, was about to work injustice to occasional individuals. From the time when the supplanting subject crawled abjectly to the foot of the throne beseeching the king's mercy to the present day when governments under certain circumstances grant privileges not obtainable under the regular administration of law and equity, there has been a continual exhibition of the exercise of this beneficial power of sovereignty. In other words, the "square deal" has always been more or less of a fact and,

today, in America it is more patent than it ever was anywhere before. The square deal spirit is growing in strength and importance and all that oil companies on railroad land need find in the event that they find their title defective, is its operation in their favor.
That they would not get it, is inconceivable.

TRUST AMERICA.

Trust the American people. They have never yet consciously or intentionally done a wrong to weak or strong, within the country's boundaries or without. Their chief merit is their adherence to the square deal, in the past and now. It did not remain so long.

In the past, the passion for the square deal still ruled, but stronger
now. Cuba craved the American people took from Spain and gave to her.

Trust the American people to do the right thing.

At the present moment, sir, you yourself are actually redeting bonds against the railroad on the ground that if those proceedings are carried forward to successful issue, a number of oil companies will not get a square deal. That is an appeal for a square deal, not hopeless, that it carries strength, is proved by your very act in making it. If, then, you desire an appeal in the name of the square deal will say those companies from hurt now, why do you not request that the same square deal will give them in the end after it has brought about a condition of affairs wherein the whole people are possessed of what is rightfully theirs?

Pardon me, Judge Short, for alluding to it, really, it appears that you to have got your rainbow on straight SHOULD PROCEEDE ANYHOW.

Nevertheless, admitting the contention that no injustice need be done to innocent parties, it would be done to innocent parties to unsound and would fall should the railroad lands revert to the government, and that each and every company would be disrupted and the stockholders' investments utterly destroyed. We have the stand that proceedings having for their object the railroad's relinquishment, should not be instituted. The Southern Pacific, if wrongfully in possession, holds about 65,000 acres of oil land worth approximately $6,000,000, all of which belongs to the people of the United States. That being the case, there can be no question regarding the proper course to pursue. No feeling of sympathy should stay proceedings. In the less important affairs of government,
our actions are not stopped.

THREE STRAIGHT FOR ATHLETICS; COOMBS BEATS 3 PITCHERS

PHILADELPHIA TOSERS INVADE HOME OF CUBS AND "RUB IT IN"; SECOND VICTORY FOR JACK COOMBS

Connie Mack Predicts That Chicago Will Not Win a Game in Series; Reulbach Starts to Pitch, but Falls Down; McIntyre Is Batted Out of Box and Pfeister Finishes.

ATHLETICS, 12: CUBS, 5.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26—Philadelphia came out here today and rubbed it in. The Athletics scored their third successive victory of the world's championship series with the Chicago Nationals to the tune of 12 to 5, and if the big pennant is not nailed to the Quaker City mast tomorrow Connie Mack will be the most surprised, bewildered, astounded and obfuscated gentleman on the baseball map.

Captain Chance was ordered from the field in the third inning for disputing a decision.

In the three games played so far the Easterners have pounded every assortment of curves which the entire galaxy of Chicago pitchers could offer. Only "King" Cole, so-called pitching find of the year, remains to be seriously considered by Manager Chance, and he has been held back because of his inexperience in crucial games, and a belief, also, that his assortment of shots is just what the Mack men like.

Mack, in all probability will furnish local enthusiasts with a view of Bender tomorrow.

The Big Chief has a gory collection of Cub caps taken in that three-hit game at Philadelphia, but his knife is newly sharpened for more. Who will go against him is a problem. May be, "Three-Fingered" Brown—maybe Cole. And then there are Foden, an untried man, and Pfeister, who has been of little use this year.

It is a matter of indifference to Mack. He and his players regard the game tomorrow as a mere formality—a bit of red tape, with incidental profit of course—necessary to guarantee title to the bunting.

GAME IS A SLAUGHTER.

The combat today was a slaughter. Reulbach lasted just two innings, during which he allowed one single and two doubles, passed two batters and saw three runs cross the home plate. McIntyre was the next twirler led up for the slaughter. He pitched just a third-of an inning, but that was long enough for the visitors to hammer out two singles, a home run and to send Davis to first rubbing his back where one of McIntyre's inshoots had hit him. With the assistance of a boot by Schulte, four runs were scored under his friendly reign.

The bright particular stars of the day were Coombs, Barry and Murphy. Coombs allowed only six hits, passed four men and contributed a two-bagger and a single, which added three runs to the Philadelphia collection. Barry hit as if there were another automobile in sight. Also he figured in double plays. He made three hits, each one a double, drove in two runs and himself reached the counting station three times. It remained for Murphy, however, to electrify the crowd. His first noteworthy exploit was to smash the ball over the heads of the right field crowd into the regular bleachers for four sacks, driving in two runners ahead of him. At the time he did not know how far the ball had traveled and stopped after covering the two bases allowed under the ground rules for hits into the outfield. CHANCE IS BANISHED.

The hit was more than a run counter, for it figured largely in the expulsion of Chance from the grounds. Chance, joined by most of his men, surrounded O'Day in an endeavor to persuade him that the rules made all hits into the crowd at any point or distance doubles. The umpire could not see it, and when the Cub leaders sought to prolong the argument he ordered him from the field. Hedges, ordinarily a catcher, replaced him at first.

MURPHY'S NEXT SENSATIONAL EXHIBITION

served him an ovation. He ran back after what Zimmerman had marked for a double, jumped on the barrier in the right field, grasped the ball by his finger nails, fell over backward into the crowd and presently emerged with the trophy still safe. Meanwhile Schickard, thinking that there were two out or that Murphy could not possibly have captured the drive, sped around the bases. He awoke at third to find he had been doubled at first.

Schickard faced Coombs four times, and all but once was allowed to walk. He brought two runs across the plate and fielded his position without a flaw. Both of Schulte's hits were doubles. Tinker made three hits, one of which was a two-bagger. His fielding was not up to his steady work, however, two errors being charged against him. He neglected the only stolen base of the day.

The brand of weather furnished constituted an argument against long schedules. Early in the morning it rained and while this shower passed, minute drops fell during much of the day. A chilling wind came from the north and the clouds were so overcast that the spectators had difficulty in keeping track of the ball.

25,210 PAID ADMISSIONS.

There were 4,000 persons in line when the sale of general admission tickets began and when the turnstile count was completed it was announced that $2,510 in admissions paid for their admission to the grounds. The stands were filled at noon, many of those present marching at lunches and drinking coffee which was hawked about the stands in little tin buckets.

There were individuals expedited to secure tickets for persons who did not care to stand in line themselves. The experience of a messenger boy hired by the hour is typical. He was ordered to secure twelve tickets for admission to the grounds. When he went to the box office he was told that the price to secure the four tickets also was a single purchase when the box office opened. By special condition of the ticket agent and the box office, our hero was sent immediately to the grounds. Immediately upon buying these 12 tickets, this boy went to the scalpers. The boy gave up one ticket and immediately emerged with the three remaining ones in his pocket to get a fresh price. Corbett had been knocked down twice and was reeling blindly around the ring, a target for uppercuts and hooks to the face.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—Young Corbett, the king of lightweights, proved again tonight when he met Willie Hercher that he was another of the champions who cannot "come back." The boy was stopped in the middle of the fourth round after Corbett had been knocked down twice and was reeling blindly around the ring, a target for uppercuts and hooks to the face.

GAME BY INNINGS.

FIRST INNING.

Philadelphia—Strunk was given a base on balls. Then he went to second on Lord's sacrifice bunt, the latter going out via the Ruibach to Chance route. Sheppard took Collings' Texas League. Strunk scored on Hofman's single to center. Baker is caught stealing and is thrown out by Kline to Tinker. One run.

Chicago—Sheppard walked. Schulte doubled into the overflow crowd in center field. Sheppard going to third. A moment later Sheppard scored on Hofman's sacrifice fly to Strunk and Schulte took third. Chance struck out Zimmerman's high fly ball into Strunk's hands. One run.

SECOND INNING.

Philadelphia—Davis was passed on four pitched balls. Davis grounded out, Steinfield to Chance. Davis going to second. Barry doubled into the left field crowd and scored Davis. Thomas lined out to Schulte. Harry was held at second. Baker scored when Coombs hit for two bases into the left field crowd. Chance and Reulbach held conference with Kline joining in. Reulbach resumes work. Stinkum went out on throw from Zimmerman to Chance. Two runs.

Chicago—Steinfeld popped a fly to Barry. Tinker doubles down right field foul line. Kline went out via Baker to Davis and Tinker went to third. Beaumont hitting for Reulbach. Beaumont walked. Sheppard also received free passage and filled the bases. Tinker and Beaumont scored when Schulte hit for two bases to left. Hofman strikes out. Two runs.

THIRD INNING.

Philadelphia—McIntyre went in to pitch for Chicago. Sheppard made a nice running catch of Lord's long fly. A fine rain began to fall, but the game was not stopped. Steinfeld was barely able to check Collings' safe hit. Collins scored when Schulte allowed Baker's single to get past him. Baker went to third on an error. Davis was hit by a knotted ball and took first. Murphy knocked a home run over the screen into right field bleachers and Baker and Davis scored ahead of him. Chicago's entire infield gathered to insist that under the ground rules Murphy's hit should merely have been a double. The protest availed them nothing. Chance was ordered off the field for continuing to protest. Archer went to first to replace the Peerless leader. Pfeister replaced McIntyre in the box. Barry knocked the first pitched ball into the center field crowd for two bases. Barry scored when Thomas hit to Tinker and the latter threw badly to Archer. Thomas was doubled at second on Coombs' hit to Zimmerman. The play was Zimmerman to Tinker to Archer. Five runs.

Chicago—Archer went out on a throw across the diamond to Baker to Davis. Kline scored via Barry to Davis. Pfeister struck out. No runs.

EIGHTH INNING.

Philadelphia—Schulte gathered in Collins' fly. Bender went out from Zimmerman to Archer. Davis hit for two bases. Murphy was thrown out by Tinker. No runs.

Chicago—Sheppard took a free trip to first. Schulte lifted a fly to Murphy. Hofman hit too hot for Baker, who slowed up the ball and turned it into a two-bagger. Archer fanned. Sheppard scored on a passed ball. The ball hit the railing and under the ground rules Hofman also scored. Murphy jumped into the crowd in right field for a sensational catch of Zimmerman's heavy wallop. Two runs.

NINTH INNING.

Philadelphia—Barry fouled to Kline. Thomas out to Archer unassisted. Coombs singled to center. Hofman misjudging the fly and making a pickup of it. Strunk was retired by Zimmerman to Archer. No runs.

Chicago—Steinfeld flew to Strunk. Tinker singled of left. Tinker stole second. Needham, batting for Pfeister, sent a fly to Baker. No runs.

FOURTH INNING.

Philadelphia—Strunk flew out in right center. Collins forced Lord at second. Collins out on a throw of Kline to Zimmerman. No runs.

THIRTY-FIFTH INNING.

Philadelphia—Tinker drove to right field for batting practice nearly two hours in advance of the game. Pfeister shot his best assortment of curves across the plate in order to make the basemen extend themselves. A mist of rain fell for a time, but not enough to embarrass the players. The bleachers filled rapidly and overflowed the field. The crowd was held back by a low board barrier, guarded by policemen.

The Nationals had been on the field almost an hour before the Athletics marched across to their benches. The latter were cheered by the admiring, although partisan, throng. Pfeister received an ovation. The visitors swarmed about the third base line and limbered their muscles by tossing the ball.

SYNOD HEARS REPORTS ON MANY CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Long Beach Selected for Meeting Place for Next Year.

Trustees Appointed for Ensuing Term; Other Affairs.

Yesterday the Presbyterian Synod, in addition to the preliminary discussion leading up to a fight which may split the synod into a Synod of Northern California and a Synod of Southern California, also had three busy sessions of routine business. In the afternoon Long Beach was selected as the meeting place of the synod next year.

The permanent committee on the college board reported in the afternoon, in conjunction with addressers by President John Willis Baer and Rev. W. H. Lindon, D. D. The committee on college work commended the institution, which is now simple in evangelical college, interdenominational in scope, and stated that all contributions will be credited by the college board to comply with legal provisions for bequests, etc. The work of the college was commended by Rev. H. Walker, pastor of the Emmanuel church of Los Angeles.

The committee appointed to attend the examination of the San Francisco Theological Seminary also reported. The question will come up again this morning. The board of directors also reported.

Dr. Warren D. More, pastor of the Santa Barbara church, was elected chairman of a committee to have charge of home missions for the next three years, a new departure to give stability to the work.

Historian J. S. McDonald reported on the history of the church in this state, and the synod appointed a committee to see to the printing of the work he has prepared.

MORNING SESSION

In the morning the standing committee of the synod were appointed.

Rev. J. T. Wills, D. D., Rev. W. D. More, D. D., Rev. W. S. Young, D. D., and Elders Robert Henderson and F. H. Irish were elected trustees of the synod for the coming year.

Steps were also taken leading to the union of all of the Pacific Coast synods in a general conference later.

The synod endorsed a sustentation fund, providing annuities for superannuated ministers on the old line insurance plan.

Rev. Arthur Hicks made his annual report on the Schoolcraft Sunday School Missionary movement.

The report of the permanent committee on Public and Sunday school work also was received.

Rev. W. H. Webster, manager of the board's depository in San Francisco, also made a report.

Several prominent divines also addressed the synod by request.

In the evening the session was devoted to addresses on work among the Indians and on the recent Edinburgh conference.

STILL NO TRACE OF GEO. CHESLEY

Missing Junk Dealer Has Not Been Heard From Since October 1.
Police Are Baffled.

After a three weeks' search by Chief of Police Shaw and Patrolmen George Miller, no trace of George Chesley, the missing junk dealer, has been found. Charley McKinney, the partner of the white-haired man, is still an inmate of the county jail, pending word from the missing junk dealer. Chesley disappeared on the night of October 1st and the authorities have been searching for him since the 5th, when the master was reported by Pound Master Lowry.

Sheriff Chittenden has given up the case, believing that Chesley purposely dropped out of sight in order to get rid of McKinney, who was living off the aged man. A few days ago, the neighboring Valley towns were flooded with descriptions of the missing man in hope of locating him and thus clearing McKinney of any connection with the mysterious disappearance.

McKinney is languishing in jail with a charge of vagrancy against him. The vicinity of Chesley's camp near Kearny avenue and A street has been searched for clues that might lead to something tangible regarding the case but nothing definite has developed.

It provides for the consolidation of government and is drafted along the most up-to-date lines now being pursued in these matters. Oliver was one of the founders who drew up the charter. He is well known in the outer town, having served on several committees for boasting the trestlewater project there, and having advanced this matter before the legislature of the legislature.

PEARL MANNING IS NOW MRS. WHEELER

Salvation Army Lassie Who Eloped With Married Man Is Located; Perjury Charge Dropped.

Chief of Police Shaw yesterday received word that Pearl Manning the 13-year-old Salvation Army lassie who eloped with L. D. Wheeler of Merced Wednesday, is now Mrs. Wheeler, having been married to the Mercedite on the day she left Fresno. Wheeler secured a marriage license from the county clerk here. He gave the girl a age as is and stated so under oath. After he had secured the license and left the office, the mother of the girl appeared on the scene and swore to a warrant for the arrest of Wheeler on a charge of perjury. The warrant was placed in the hands of the police but Wheeler could not be located before he married the girl.

It was stated yesterday by Chief Shaw that the Merced man will not be prosecuted, now that he and the girl are married. The mother has changed her mind and decided to permit her daughter to settle down in married life. Chief Shaw did not learn where the pair were married, but they are now living at Merced. The Manning girl eloped with Wheeler because her mother forced her to sing on the streets with the Salvation Army.

THIRTY THREE MEMBERS OF I. W. W. NOW IN COUNTY JAIL

Police Arrest Five More for Speaking on Streets
Without Permit.

Sheriff Chittenden Says He
Can Accommodate 300
"Workers."

With the arrest of five members of the I. W. W. last night by the police, there are now thirty-three of the so-called "workers" in the county jail.
One was released yesterday as he declared that he was not an I. W. W.
and asked for an opportunity to shake Fresno's dust from his feet. Police Judge Briggs gave him the chance and he left town. All of the remainder, excepting the five jailed last night, have entered pleas of not guilty and demanded immediate trials by jury.

Four of the "workers" were in court yesterday morning. Alfred Nelson said he was not an I. W. W. and pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy. He was given "goat." H. S. Barnes, E. F. Doros and William Love pleaded not guilty to the same charge and demanded immediate jury hearings.
The trial was returned to jail in default of bonds of $100.

At 8 o'clock last night, five were arrested on a charge of violating the city ordinance against speaking on the public streets without a written permit from the chief of police. Patrolman Al Hayes arrested J. Alpine, a lumberman; Holmes arrested William Cashman and George Berger, miners; Pickens jailed Manuel Carrascal, a laborer; and McKeo arrested C. R. Neelley, a smelter-worker. All had I. W.
buttons, working cards and literature but no money. The men arrived in town on the brakemans of the southbound trains yesterday afternoon.

Since the I. W. W. headquarters were removed from Mariposa street to a tent
in Belmont, just beyond the city limits line, the "workers" who arrive in town have found some difficulty in locating the place where they are supposed to register and receive financial assistance.

Sheriff Chittenden, who witnessed the scene at I and Mariposa streets last night, stated that he had made arrangements to accommodate three hundred of the I. W. W.'s if they come to Fresno.

"I can, on a moment's notice, take all of the vagrants out of the bull-pen and turn it over to the 'workers.' This bull-pen, which is on the lower floor of the northwest wing of the jail, will accommodate approximately three hundred men. I am prepared for any invasion," said the sheriff.

When the "workers" tried to speak
at I and Mariposa streets last evening, a crowd of fully five hundred was in attendance. At the same time, evidently at a given signal, four men tried to speak, each on a different corner.
The police were on hand in large numbers and the men had no sooner started than they were jerked from their boxes and taken to jail. The big crowd lingered for several minutes expecting to see more of the "workers" on the boxes, but after the arrest of the five men, none ventured forth and the crowd gradually melted away.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Oct. 20.—A dozen prisoners in the city jail were intimidated last night by two men on the outside who boxed guns through the bars, and waved through the grating and allowed two prisoners supposedly to crawl through, after which all four disappeared in the darkness. The police are without a clew to the ones escaping and are awaiting the results.
Intelligence an hour ago heard of a gunplay at the jail and the prisoners reported a jail break. The police found the bars cut and the two men gone. None of the other prisoners made any attempt to escape and did not report the break until the men had plenty of time to get away.

AUGUSTUS THOMAS' GREATEST PLAY, "THE WITCHING HOUR," HERE TONIGHT

John Mason in "The Witching Hour" at the Barton tonight.

After a run which lasted for more than a year at the Hackett theater, "The Witching Hour," with the cast headed by John Mason, comes to the Barton tonight. Every critic in New York considered "The Witching Hour" to be the best play that Augustus Thomas has ever written, and at the same time the best that has been produced in New York in a decade. During its long run in the metropolis the theater at every performance was packed to its utmost capacity. Mr. Thomas has succeeded in writing what is considered by many to be the long-awaited great Amer-

HOUSE NUMBERING IN NEW TERRITORY

Proposed System Will Not Be Legally Effective Before 7th of Next Month.

Daily applications are being made at the office of the city clerk and of the street superintendent for numbers for houses under the new system having perfected for the newly annexed territory and also those portions in the裴斯 tract and elsewhere within the corporate limits that have been without systematic numbering. The applications are premature because an ordinance has yet to be adopted legalizing the system as an amendment to the ordinance covering house numbering in the old city going back to 1898. This amending ordinance cannot be adopted before the next meeting of the City Council in the fall of next month to make the new system effective.

WATSONVILLE FIRE DEPARTMENT SEEKS HELP FROM OUTSIDE

WATSONVILLE, Cal., Oct. 20.—Fire this afternoon threatened the destruction of the southern section of the city. It started in the Hoffman house, a large hotel. The only fire engine, in service, broke down a few minutes after starting up. Appeals for help were sent to Salinas and San Jose, and both cities responded, but the fire was under control when the auxiliary engines arrived and was afterward quickly subdued. The action of the fire chief in getting the outside walls of the hotel and the unexpected resounding of the wind kept the fire from spreading. It was estimated about $10,000 worth of damage was done to the hotel, which was damaged to the extent of $10,000.

HAS ANYBODY HERE SEEN KELLY? YOU'LL KNOW HIM BY HIS SMILE AT THE S. AND C. THEATER

can play to enjoy the distinction of being such a composition, it must embody, aside from its subject matter, the treatment that will create for it the commendation of the public that lasts not for one day or a month, but for years. The dean of dramatic critics, William Winter, declares "The Witching Hour" to be "the play of the century."

What an effort it is to maintain. Mr. Thomas has taken for the motto of his play the all-absorbing subject of ten partly bad dynamic thought and woven it into a story that holds the attention of the playgoer from the very first line until the final curtain. Without attempting to teach, "The Witching Hour" dissipates certain prejudices that have obtained for years and years, and shows clearly that philosophical ideas born of superstitions have no logical standing.

Every character in "The Witching Hour" is as clear-cut as a cameo, and with the aid of a company of artists of established reputation, Mr. Thomas has thereby been enabled more easily to make his bid for the position of the greatest American dramatist. In selecting John Mason as the star, the Shuberts have enlisted the shrewdest and most among the skill comedy role players, and some of the standard Oscar Wildes. "The Importance of Being Earnest" was Mr. Miller's first departure from intensely serious drama since the first production of "The Crooked Ditch," and offers him an opportunity to portray a light, graceful, comely character of the type familiar to him during the days of his great success in New York at the head of the Empire Theater Stock Company. His new play has none of the pathos of "Heartsease," nor the dramatic intensity that occasionally crept into "D'Arcy of the Guards." It is pure merriment, all smiles, light chatter and joyous laughter. The story of the play moves briskly on a deliciously funny farcical motif and is built on an exceedingly shill idea. It might be termed a joke in three acts. The people in the story belong to the fashionable set in Saratoga and the action of the play begins one sunny afternoon at that fashionable summer resort. The character created by Mr. Miller, a California man of the world with keen sense of humor and proper appreciation for the absurd complications into which he is drawn, is the one person in the play who is not a fashionable idler. Mr. Miller, as usual, has gathered an imposing array of talent in his supporting company. Both New York and Chicago, during the long runs last season, the critics were unimpressive in declaring Mr. Miller's company the finest comedians he has ever presented. The more important roles of the play are taken by Laura Hope Crews, Josephine Lovett, Walter Hutchins, Charles Gotthold and Laura Clement. The seat sale for Mr. Miller's engagement opened yesterday.

REPUBLICANS ASSEMBLE AT 3 ENTHUSIASTIC MEETINGS

Needham Given Receptions at Laton and Sanger, After Speeches.

Candidates Address Record Smashing Crowd of Voters at Oleander.

Republican candidates addressed three enthusiastic meetings yesterday, all of which were of large size, breaking records for political meetings in their respective localities. Hon. J. C. Needham, candidate for re-election to Congress from this district, spoke at Laton in the afternoon, and again at Sanger in the evening; a reception being held in each place separate from the regular meeting. The legislative and county candidates and members of the county committee spoke at a meeting in Oleander last evening, which was probably the largest political gathering ever held at that place.

Needham's Laton meeting in the afternoon was both large and responsive. It was presided over by N. E. Densmore. An excellent spirit was manifested, and speeches by Densmore and others as well as by the candidate were heard. At the close of the meeting, a banquet was tendered Needham at the house of J. W. Herbert.

The evening meeting for Needham at Sanger was one of the best attended in the history of the little town. Needham spoke as he has at other points in the valley on the issues of the campaign, and immediately after the meeting was a guess at a reception held in the library and reading room, at which he met a large number of people personally and talked with them. The regular meeting was presided over by F. M. Garrison.

The Oleander meeting was described as the "biggest ever," accommodations proving far inadequate for the crowd that assembled. The crowd was swelled by about thirty Al Mason boosters, from Fowler, the home town of the Republican nominee for sheriff, all wearing Mason buttons, and lending added enthusiasm to the meeting. Virgil Hatch acted as chairman. Otis Turner, with M. Jack at the piano, rendered campaign songs and scored a great hit, being encored repeatedly. The legislative and county candidates all made brief talks, and in addition to these, J. B. Bradley, candidate for justice of the peace in that township, and A. B. Chamness, candidate for constable, spoke to the voters. M. B. Harris, J. P. Bernhard, and others of the county committee also appeared for a few words on the rostrum.

Announcement was made of the meeting to be held in Fowler tomorrow night, arranged for by the Armenian Citizens' Club.

PLANNING OUT WORK IN BOEDING PARK

Shaded Driveways Will Be Laid Out in the New Portion This Year.

BROWN FAVORS IT

He was followed by Alex Brown, who, after a resume of the history of the measure, admitting that it was not in very good form as formerly submitted to the voters and defeated, and telling how the bad features have been eliminated, went into the measure as it now stands.

"The bill as it now stands," he declared, "is as near perfect as it is possible for human ingenuity to devise."

He went at length into a refutation of hazy claims that the Southern Pacific is to benefit by this bill, or that it was prompted for the benefit of the Southern Pacific. He made as salient points in his analysis of the effect of the amendment, should it carry, that it will give home rule to counties in the matter of taxation, will save money to the rank and file of the people in payment of taxes, and by putting all persons and corporations on an equitable basis as to taxation, will force the corporations to pay a just share of the money needed for state expenses. As a special point, he dealt on the advantage of counties being able to place a high assessment valuation and a low tax rate. Under the present system of assessment valuation and a high rate, he pointed out, prospective purchasers of property see the difference in the assessed value and the asked price, and see a tax rate, maybe as high as in other parts of the country. These factors are likely to drive away men who would otherwise invest in affected sections.

He was uncompromising in his attitude against the general property tax, declaring that after twelve years of service on the board of equalization, he had found that equalizing does not equalize, and that the system is a failure.

WHO FAVOR IT

Among the organizations that have declared for the amendment to be mentioned, the Commonwealth Club, the State Grange, the State Health Federation, the Merchants' Association of San Francisco, and others.

W. L. Atkinson, who is president of the real estate board of San Jose, spoke briefly of the adoption of resolutions favoring the amendment by the body he represents, recalling some of the salient points made by Brown as reasons why this should be done.

The meeting then went into a detailed discussion of the probable working of the amendment if adopted, and the probable legislation that will be needed in connection with it.

A resolution of thanks to the visitors for setting the matter before the real estate board here was passed on motion of H. H. Alexander.

The party was in Turlock yesterday, and though the itinerary for today has not been fully mapped out, will be in Bakersfield tonight, and will possibly make a stop in Hanford today. Tomorrow night they are to have a meeting in Los Angeles, and will go from there on south to San Diego.

REALTY BOARD DECLARES FOR SEGREGATING THE TAXES

Resolve to Work for Senate Amendment No. 1 in Called Meeting.

Alex Brown of Equalizers and Others Speak in Favor of Measure.

A court meeting of the real estate board and business men of this city last night decided an extension of Senate Amendment No. 1 for segregating of state and county taxes made by Alex Brown, chairman of the state board of equalization, and others, and then adopted resolutions favoring the adoption of the amendment at the November election. The meeting was one of a number that will be held in various parts of this state during a tour that Brown, with J. R. Howell of San Francisco, and W. L. Atkinson of San Jose, is making.

The meeting was called last evening by the real estate board, and was attended by about fifteen persons. The object of the meeting was, besides the adoption of the resolution, the appointment of a committee consisting of W. N. Rohrer, C. G. Hayden and A. D. Chace, to co-operate with similar committees of public bodies of the state in securing the passage of the amendment.

TEXT OF RESOLUTIONS

The resolutions adopted were as follows:

Whereas, Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 1, adopted by the last legislature and to be voted upon by the qualified electors of the state at the general election to be held in November, 1910, provides a system for the complete segregation of the sources of revenue of state and county taxes, thus accomplishing home rule in taxation; and

Whereas, This amendment will require corporations throughout the state of California, which are at present grossly under assessed, to pay their full share of taxes; and

Whereas, This amendment provides a modern, scientific and equitable system of revenue and taxation along lines that have been demonstrated practicable and successful in other states of the Union; and

Whereas, It is shown by reliable computations from the assessment rolls of this county for the fiscal year 1909-10, that the net gain to this county, had said Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 1 been in force during said fiscal year, would have been $15,320.00; now therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Fresno Real Estate Board and business men assembled hereby endorse Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 1, and pledges its members to do whatever they can lawfully in furtherance of its adoption, and that a committee of three be appointed by the chair, to co-operate with other similar committees from different civic and industrial organizations of this state in an effort to secure the adoption of the said Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 1."

The first speaker was J. R. Howell of the San Francisco realty board and the state federation, who went briefly into the difficulty of getting people to vote intelligently for amendments on the ballot or to vote on them at all.

BROWN FAVORS IT

He was followed by Alex Brown, who, after a resume of the history of the measure, admitting that it was not in very good form as formerly submitted to the voters and defeated, and telling how the bad features have been eliminated, went into the measure as it now stands.

"The bill as it now stands," he declared, "is as near perfect as it is possible for human ingenuity to devise."

He went at length into a refutation of hazy claims that the Southern Pacific is to benefit by this bill, or that it was prompted for the benefit of the Southern Pacific. He made as salient points in his analysis of the effect of the amendment, should it carry, that it will give home rule to counties in the matter of taxation, will save money to the rank and file of the people in payment of taxes, and by putting all persons and corporations on an equitable basis as to taxation, will force the corporations to pay a just share of the money needed for state expenses. As a special point, he dealt on the advantage of counties being able to place a high assessment valuation and a low tax rate. Under the present system of assessment valuation and a high rate, he pointed out, prospective purchasers of property see the difference in the assessed value and the asked price, and see a tax rate, maybe as high as in other parts of the country. These factors are likely to drive away men who would otherwise invest in affected sections.

He was uncompromising in his attitude against the general property tax, declaring that after twelve years of service on the board of equalization, he had found that equalizing does not equalize, and that the system is a failure.

WHO FAVOR IT

Among the organizations that have declared for the amendment to be mentioned, the Commonwealth Club, the State Grange, the State Health Federation, the Merchants' Association of San Francisco, and others.

W. L. Atkinson, who is president of the real estate board of San Jose, spoke briefly of the adoption of resolutions favoring the amendment by the body he represents, recalling some of the salient points made by Brown as reasons why this should be done.

The meeting then went into a detailed discussion of the probable working of the amendment if adopted, and the probable legislation that will be needed in connection with it.
